

Author Offers Unique Perspective through Poetry

By Eloquent Books

Dated: Jul 08, 2009

Grant Newman blends poetic vindications with experiences of acculturation in this emotional journey through life from the unique perspective of a Jewish man of color.

The drama, rhythm and spontaneity combined with religious and philosophical elements creates a unique collection that is intelligent, meaningful and provocative.

Greatly inspired by the beliefs and writings of author Otto Zvi Kahn, Newman draws upon religious beliefs that reflect in his writings about love, death, the workplace, divorce and even our economic climate.

Written from his childhood years in the 1970s throughout his adult life, From Exile to Excision intertwines our present-day life with traditional Judeo/Christian imagery that seeks to unify beliefs and values across all religions and walks of life.
